

Jon Hutchings
Board Member

Great community requires long-term commitment. As a second generation LIHT Board Member, I aim to deliver the natural beauty and shared heritage of Lummi Island into the hands of our children and grandchildren in the same way that my parents did for me and for my children.

In doing so, I want to inspire our up and coming Island generations to take ownership of their own future through active stewardship and direct participation. It is an honor to serve them.